Student and Parent/Guardian Consent Statement

The National Campaign to Stop Violence, and the Utah Board of Juvenile Justice (UBJJ), which sponsor the Do the Write Thing Challenge nationally and in Utah, will publish selected student writings and quotations in books and in discussion papers on youth violence both in print and electronic format. Before publishing your writing, the National Campaign and UBJJ require your written consent and the written consent of your parent or guardian.

Finalists will be invited to recognition events in Utah and/or Washington DC where the media may be present. This may result in photographs, video and audio being recorded that may be broadcast through print, television, radio and internet.

If you and your parent/guardian agree to permit the National Campaign and UBJJ to publish your writing and use your photograph for promotional purposes, please read the following statement and sign below:

We agree to give ownership of the attached student writing to the National Campaign to Stop Violence and the Utah Board of Juvenile Justice, so that it may be considered for recognition and published. We also understand that photographs or videos may be used for future promotional purposes.
